

Research4Life Code of Conduct - DECLARATION OF INTERESTS

Research4Life is a partnership that functions entirely on the basis of good will and is dependent on volunteers. Since inception, Research4Life has endeavored to deliver their work with integrity, following the highest standards of behaviour and acting ethically. To further support these standards, and avoid potential conflicts of interests, Research4Life are asking all volunteers, consultants, and anyone who has identified a potential conflict of interest to carefully review the new Code of Conduct, and complete and sign this Declaration of Interests form.

Full name:

Working capacity for Research4Life:

1. Do you, or does any close family relative, have a shareholding or financial interest in a company that stands to benefit financially from the activities undertaken by Research4Life which might give rise to a conflict of interest or the appearance of a conflict of interest? YES NO
2. Do you, or does any close family relative, stand to personally gain - either financially or through favours - from the activities undertaken by Research4Life? YES NO
3. Do you perform any paid services for a company or organisation that does, or has the appearance of, opposing the activities undertaken by Research4Life? YES NO
4. Are you aware of any other personal circumstance, not covered above, that may give rise to a conflict of interest or the appearance of a conflict of interest? YES NO

If you have answered YES to any of the above questions, or are unsure if there is a potential conflict or not, please provide details below or on a separate sheet attached, and submit your completed form to the Research4Life Executive Council for review:

This information is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge

Signed: Date:

To be completed by a member of the Research4Life Executive Council:

I have reviewed and approved this declaration and taken any action necessary

Signed: Date:

Working capacity: Date: